Dear Steve:

Thank you so much for everything you did to make my refinancing experience as simple as possible. The experience was everything and more than what you advertise on WAEB radio. I listened to your ad for over a year and when I finally decided to refinance my home your company and my current lender were my only choices. The Mortgage Company won the deal on my first visit to your office. I didn't even have an appointment, I walked in and we sat down, and you won my trust immediately.

Those who think the refinance experience is stressful and filled with uncertainty should only do business with the Mortgage Company. Your organization explains everything in detail, does not over sell, and allows you to make a final decision without being pushed or pressured.

Thanks you again for all your good work. I would recommend you to anyone who is looking to finance or refinance their home.

Yours truly,

Edward Beishne
