

Dear Steve,

Thank you for all your help. I found nothing at all about you and the company that I could say you need to improve on or change.

You answered every question and concern that I had. I was really happy with how I was shown.

How your side of the business is worked & handled. Any time that I hear someone mention

they are buying a house I recommend you. Most of my friends know that you must be good for me to speak highly.

Thanks again,
